

Customary Justice and the Rule of Law in War-Torn Societies

Deborah H. Isser, editor

UNITED STATES INSTITUTE OF PEACE PRESS
WASHINGTON, D.C.

Contents

Preface and Acknowledgments	xi
Introduction: Shifting Assumptions from Abstract Ideals to Messy Realities	1
Deborah H. Isser
Three Key Constraints	3
Embracing Complexity	5
1. Dilemmas of Articulation in Mozambique: Customary Justice in Transition	13
Stephen C. Lubkemann, Helene Maria Kyed, and Jennifer Garvey
Mozambican Society: A Sociocultural Kaleidoscope	16
History of State/Society Relations in Mozambique.	17
The Traditional Authority System and Customary Law	24
The Formal Legal System.	34
Formal and Customary Justice: Ongoing Dilemmas of Articulation.	40
Recommendations	64
2. Mayan Law in Post-Conflict Guatemala	77
Jan Hessbruegge and Carlos Fredy Ochoa García
Guatemala's Justice Systems in the Context of Historic Discrimination	79
Nonstate Systems: Local Expressions of Mayan Law	85
The State Justice System	99
Coexistence of State and Nonstate Justice Systems	105
Conclusions and Recommendations.	112
3. Local-Level Justice under Transitional Administration: Lessons from East Timor	119
Tanja Chopra, Christian Ranheim, and Rod Nixon
Historical Background	122
Local-Level Justice	124
Reestablishing the Rule of Law: From the Top Down	131
Approaches to Local Justice under the Transitional Administration.	136

After the Transitional Administration	150
Conclusions and Recommendations	153
4. The Clash of Two Goods: State and Nonstate Dispute Resolution in Afghanistan	159
Thomas Barfield, Neamat Nojumi, and J Alexander Thier
Nonstate Dispute Resolution in Afghanistan	163
The Formal Justice System	175
Potential for Coexistence of the Formal and Informal Systems . .	183
5. Unintended Consequences: Constraint of Customary Justice in Post-Conflict Liberia	193
Stephen C. Lubkemann, Deborah H. Isser, and Philip A. Z. Banks III
Rule of Law in Liberia: A Country's Troubled History	195
Liberia's Dual Justice System	199
The Formal System	204
The Customary Justice System	207
The Formal and Customary Systems in Comparative Perspective	214
Recent State Regulation of Customary Justice Systems	220
Conclusions and Recommendations	226
6. Tribal Customary Law and Legal Pluralism in al Anbar, Iraq . . .	239
Patricio Asfura-Heim
Tribalism and Anbari Society	242
Anbari Tribal Customary Law in Practice	250
Tribal Law and State Authority	264
Counterinsurgency and Tribal Customary Law	274
Conclusion: The Future of Tribal Law in Iraq	279
7. Customary Law in the Cross Fire of Sudan's War of Identities . . .	285
Francis M. Deng
Historical Background: Law, War, and Identity	287
Customary Law in Its Cultural Context	293
Customary Law and Legal Pluralism	304
Customary Law, War, and Social Transformation	307
The Challenges of Reform	312

Conclusion: Understanding and Engaging Customary Justice Systems	325
Deborah H. Isser
A New Framework for Understanding Customary Justice Systems and Legal Pluralism	327
Practical Recommendations for Engaging with Customary Justice Systems	341
Conclusion: Filling the Knowledge Gaps	363
 Index	 369
About the Contributors	379